

IMRG Dinner Club: Peak Trading

The Hampshire Hotel, London | 07 Sept

This networking dinner will enable you to forge valuable connections with retail industry giants, movers, and shakers ahead of the Black Friday period.

We're uniting thought leaders and key players in the ecommerce ecosystem, providing you with the opportunity to seamlessly connect with leading retail leaders during an intimate dinner setting.

"Amazing event, it gave us the opportunity to speak one to one with senior retailers from top brands, while enjoying a really great night out too. It would have taken months to achieve this directly"

Forge invaluable relationships, exchange insights, and lay the groundwork for lucrative collaborations.

Our exclusive Dinner Club events are regularly attended by senior decision makers from some of the biggest brands in the UK.

Typical roles are Directors of or Heads of Digital, eCommerce, Product and Innovation, alongside some CIO's and CEO's.

Meet senior decision makers

The dinner club events create an environment for senior decision makers from leading retailers and brand executives and retail solution providers to meet, talk, learn and share ideas. It's a place to meet your peers facing similar challenges and experts who have seen it all before.

We shine a spotlight on some of the best retail tech solutions, share & discuss real life cases studies and all in the privacy of our own area in suitably wonderful surroundings.
